Decision in the Bank Case Postponed-Comoners to Assess Lands-Sailors Ar-

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

SEPTEMBER 18, 1884.

The Hinstings Court met this moraing at 1 o'clock. Judge Mann announced his cadiness to deliver his decision on the tuestion of the jurisdiction of his court in he suite against the Planters and Mechanes Bank, which had been raised by he State, but in the absence of he State's counsel he would doer doing so until Saturday, Messra, 'egram & Stringfellow, of Richmond, the fer doing so until Saturday. Mesars, Pegram & Stringfellow, of Richmond, the latter of whom so ably argued is favor of the transfer of the cause to the Circuit Court of Richmond, when the matter was brought up in our court some days ago, have withdrawn from the case as counsel for the State, and Colonel M. M. Martin, of Charlotte county, it is understood, has been engaged in their place. Colonel Martin was unable to get here to-day by reason of professional engagements. The rendering of the decision was, therefore, deferred.

Judge Mann to-day designated Mesars, Themas Sheddon, Joseph T. Hudson, F. E. Davis, S. P. Arrington, and P. S. Sealury as commissioners to assess the value of jectrain lands and houses in the city which the Virginia and Carolina Ruitroad Company ask to have condemned for the purposes of their road. The commissioners comprise a carpenter, a brickhyer, stoners comprise a carpenter, a bricklayer, two merchants and an auctioneer, and their appointment rives satisfaction to all-perties. They will begin their work on the parties. They will begin their work on the 25th, at Mark's planing-milland residence, on Market street, and will complete it in about three days. The property of some sixteen or eighteen persons is embraced in the application for condemnation, some of whom it is understood will make a vigorous fight against it meourt.

The road, as at present designed, will come down Pearl street, in the western portion of the city. The residents of that street and vicinity are bitterly opposed to occupation of the street by a railroad, and will meet to night to protest against it.

Fortune town, in Amherst, this evening. Fortune lives in Madison townshio, and is in the employment of the Midland railroad. He and several others had been camping a day or two on the farm of William T. Anderson for the purpose of hunting. Fortune, it is alleged, asked Mitchell to carry some of the baggage to the road, as they were breaking camp. The boy replied that he was going after a cow, and didn't have time. The request was repeated, and the boy again declined. Fortune then shot, the whole load entering Mitchell's breast near the heart. Two smaller boys were with Mijchell. Fortune fied, and was arrested by a magistrate at his house and is held under guard until to-morrow. Fortune says he don't know how the gun went off, and that it was an accident, but Mitchell's companions say it was deliberate.

The Page Courier says: The Massanutton north of Luray has been ablaze for several days, destroying, we suppose, much valuable timber. The hot dry westher has been exceedingly favorable to its spread, and unless there is rain very soon we may expect to bear of still further damage.
How these fires originated is unknown,
though during the past summer forest fires occurred in Russia which could only be accounted for by the ignition of dry wood and grass by the fierce rays of the sun alone. But even in cases where the origin of such fires cannot be traced to any known human agency it is unquestionably possible to protect our forests from them, and it is certainly time to begin.

One Hundred and Twenty-Five Years.

The Compbeil County Record says: "Colonel D. R. Arnold, commissioner of the revenue for this district, informs us that while listing the births and deaths he terred that Mr. William Valentine died near Lane's Mill, in this county, at the age of one hundred and twenty-five years. Colonel Arnold says he got his information from members of the family, and believes that it is correct.

"This being so, it shows that Campbell county had the oldest inhabitant in Virginia, and probably the oldest in the United Sistes."

The cotton crop will be less than was expected a month ago, owing to the drought, but this is largely counterbalanced by larger side, nothing whatever could be seen of any body of troops, large or small; but gradually the distant sky-line of knolls and crops of corn, wheat, and fruits then for some years. Owing to the enlarged pro-duction of food stuffs the South will not sonic years. Owing to the enlarged production of food stuffs the South will not have to purchase so largely of wheat, corn, and provisions from the West as heretofore, the difference in this as compared with last year being fully $50,000,000. The late stringency in the money market, according to many of these reports, prevented planters from borrowing as freely as usual in the spring, and forced them to close economy, so that the cotten crop has been raised at a much lower cost than in other years, and planters gre less in debt than at the corresponding time of last year. In manufacturing and mining enterprises rapid progress is being made.

The architect asserts that the work is of good to of the hostile cavalry cautiously coming of in the same formation. It was beautiful to see the swift, orderly way in while it wheeled round the village and deploye quaity, and that the contractors are responsible, competent builders. In regard to the complaint that the system of piece-work practiced by the contractors tends to break down the cight-hour law, he says that the Pension Building was the first pub-lic building exceeded in this city under the quality, and that the contractors are responsible competent builders. In regard to the cemplaint that the system of piecework practiced by the contractors tends to break down the cight-hour law, he says that the Penson Building was the first public building creeted in this city under the operations of that law, and he regrets to say that it proves to be the cause of a very considerable increase in the cost of the work. It has never been held, however, General Meigs says, that the law justified a Government officer in interfering with contractors under public letting. Were this attempted the contractor could claim damages for any such interference with, bits and his workney's very long range of each other at an hour when it was inexpedient to submit the physical endurance of the troops to a further test. The women are now talking very strongly of joining the men in their usual morning parade to intercept the non-unionists. A number of them got after one of the non-unionists on his way home from work at Harris's mine this evening, and tin-panned him severely. A few non-unionists at the Umpire mine were also tin-panned by a number of farmers' wives and faughters.

About fifteen women visited the Caledonio, we'll equipped with tin-pans, backets, etc., to meet the non-unionists as they came out of the bank. A meeting of the women will likely be held to morrow evening to decide upon future action. It is even probable that they will effect an organization 100 strong. They are very aggressive, and at the home of one non-unionist who was lesieged this evening a free-for-all fight was narrowly prevented. The non-unionist took his serenade good-naturedly, but his wife's ire was aroused and a war of words followed.

INDIANAPOLIS, September 18.—In the United States District Court this siternoon the attorneys for Shoemaker filed a bill of discovery in the Blaine-venturel libel sait. The bill begins by citing the fact of Blaine bringing suit against the Sentinel and repeating the original complaint in the suit, the Sentinel's masser and accompanying interrogatories, and the reply of Blaine's attorney. The bill then states that after filing the interrogatories Shoemaker's attorneys on the 6th of September moved the court for a rule against Blaine to answer the same within a specified time to be fixed by the court, which motion was argued September 13th, and overruled. The bill goes on to say that in order to maintain the defence of justification pleaded by Shoemaker it will be necessary and material for the orators to show and prove that Blaine had illucit intercourse with and seduced a person whom he afterwards married, the result of said intercourse being the birth of a child in about three months after said marriage. The bill further says that the orators are informed and believe that the marriage of James U Blaine and Harriet Stanwood occurred on or about March 29, 1851, 7 in Pittsburgh; that marriare was clandestinely arranged, secretly performed, and hastily accomplished; that no license was issued by any authority for such marriage, none being required by the laws of Pennsylvania at that time; that A Weman's Struggle for Beath A Weman's Atruggle for Beath.

The Latest from General Gordon.

(By cable to the Dispatch.)

CAIRO, September 18.—Kbedive Nubar Pacha, the Egyptian Prime Minister, and Sir Evelyn Baring, the British representative in Egypt, have received an identical cipher dispatch from General Gordon. The dispatch left Khartoum August 26th, and trada as follows:

reads as follows:
"I am swaiting the British forces in or-"I am awaiting the British forces in order to exactate the Egyptian garrisons. Send me Zebehr. Pay him a yearly salary of £8,000. I shall surrender Soudan to the Sultan directly the 20,000 Turkish troops arrive. If the rebels kill the Egyptians you are answerable for the bloodshed. I require £300,000 to pay my soldiers, my daily expenses being £1,500. Within a few days I shall take Berber, where I have sent Colonel Stewart, Colonel Power, and the French Consul, with troops and Bashi Bazouks, who, after staying a fortnight, will burn the town and return to Khartoum. Colonel Stewart will then to Khartoum. Colonel Stewart will then to Khartoum. Colonel Stewart will then go to Equator via Dongola to bring the garrisons chence. I disbelieve the report that Mahai is coming. I hope the Soudanese will kill him. If the Turkish troops arrive they should come by Dongola and Kassala, You should give them the £300,000."

An Interesting Boat-Race.

[By cable to the Dispatch.] LONDON, September 18.—An exciting rowing match occurred yesterday at South-ampton between the crew of the cutter Uncle Sam. of the United States flagship Lancaster, and a local crew. The Uncle Sam has fourteen ours. The rival boat has eighteen. The distance rowed was five miles, and the amount of money at stake was £60. At the start the betting was three to one in favor of the Americans. The Americans gained a slight lead at first, but the local crew soon passed ahead of them and won by 200 yards. The time of the winning crew was forty-two minutes and twenty-seven seconds.

In the evening the amateur club of South-ampton intertained both crews. Bailey, the cesswain of the american crew, responding to a toost, and that the Uncle Sam had never been beaten before. The erew of the Lancaster were prepared to back the Uncle Sam by £100 to £ ,000 against any other beat in England. The matth excited great interest.
